

Frequently Asked Questions

May I pay extra toward the principal?

With BLI's Rent-to-Own Program there is NO principal or interest. Any additional amount paid over the regular rental amount goes into your Reserve Account, which can be applied to the Early Purchase Option at any time.*

May I pay off the total cost early, without penalty?

Absolutely. Call our friendly customer service representatives to receive an Early Purchase Option quote at any time.

What is Protection+?

Protection+ is a BLI program that protects your building in case of damage. Your membership also provides access to many other great benefits.

How much money is due today?

The first rental payment and a small security deposit.

When will I begin making payments?

The deposit and first payment is due before delivery, at signing. Your second payment will be due approximately one month after delivery.

What happens to my deposit?

The deposit can be applied to either your Early Purchase Option or final payment. You won't have to wait for a rebate check to arrive in the mail.

Is this a loan?

No. It is a rental-purchase agreement. You are renting with an option to buy at any time.
